1.3 Procedure for intervention in complaints

1.3.1 Student

During the day students may direct their complaints to the Academic Director or the Dean of Students. During the night the complaints may be addressed to the Academic Director or the person appointed by the Academic Director. Students involved in criminal acts will be subject to the procedures and disciplinary sanctions outlined in the Student Handbook.

1.3.2 Administrative staff

The daytime administrative staff will be able to address their complaints to the administrator. During the night the complaints may be addressed to the Academic Director or to the person appointed .

The administrative personnel involved in criminal acts will be subject to the procedures and disciplinary sanctions concealed in the manual of the teaching and non-teaching personnel.

1.3.2.1 The process is the following:

Once the complaint has been notified to the designated personnel, the form to report criminal incidents will be completed. The same will be available in the booth of the security guard, reception, administrator and Academic Director.

The institution has security guards 24 hours, seven days a week. The crimes that occur during the hours in which the institution remains closed to the public, the assigned security personnel, or the administrator will inform in writing the event in the expected form. In addition, it should be summarized in the corresponding shift registration.

Depending on the type of crime, it will be reported to the relevant authorities and notify the persons designated in the list prepared for these purposes.

2.1 Access to facilities

The institution has controlled access through a duty guard located in the main gate 24 hours a day, seven days a week. All staff, both teaching and administrative, must carry their identification card with photo. In the case of visitors, the security personnel will direct them to the reception area where they will be channeled to the contact person.

3.1 Declaration to enforce safety regulations. In the institution there are general provisions that apply to all security personnel which establishes the rules and procedures to be followed by these personnel.

4.1 Description of the procedures used to encourage students and employees to take responsibility for their own safety.

The Administrator is responsible for providing security through a coordinated action plan between the different institutional components. The security unit is made up of a group of security guards. The fundamental mission of this group is to provide a safe environment that enables the performance of the functions of students, teachers, employees and visitors on the premises of the institution.

The security area provides the following services:

The institution promotes safety in each of our activities on and off campus. The institution ensures safety in all activities that take place.

7.1 Statistics on criminal acts.

Statistics can be compiled from the following sources:

. Security record book- This details each shift change of the security personnel and in case of an incident is summarized in it.

. Disciplinary Event Report - Constitutes the evidence of any officially reported criminal act. The office of the administrator is custodian of the same.

At the end of the academic year (mid-August) the statistics of the events that occurred will be compiled. This will be published on the bulletin boards and a copy of it will be delivered together with the campus security policy on October 1 or at the beginning of each year's program.

8.1 Policies related to the use, possession and distribution of controlled substances.

The institution has an Institutional policy to keep the Academy free of drugs and alcohol it is distributed to students in the orientation that is offered at the beginning of their studies, is reviewed periodically. Once the administrative staff is part of the institution a copy of the policy is also given to them.

9.1 Sexual abuse prevention program

The institution has a policy against sexual harassment which is distributed to students and administrative staff. It is revised to include new guidelines established by the Department of Federal Education.

9.2 Protocol of domestic violence, of couple and Stalking

Violence against women reauthorization Act of 2013

On March 7, 2013, President Obama approved the "Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013" or VAWA amends Section 485 (f) of the Higher Education Act 1965 better known as "Jeanne Clery Disclosures of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act (Clery) Act) It requires academic institutions to collect statistics on incidents of domestic violence, violence in romantic dates, sexual assault and stalking. It also requires the establishment of certain policies and procedures for the management of such situations. For these purposes Emma's Beauty Academy developed the policy and protocol for the management of these cases of violence against women. We encourage students, teachers and administrative staff to review the policy. They are placed in the bulletin boards of the academy.
